

Course Outline

Courses Offered at GEOS Oceania Colleges

General English

This course is designed for students interested in learning English for travel, academic study or employment purposes. Each course covers grammar, vocabulary and the four core English skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking. There is a full-time or part-time option.

Available at all GEOS Oceania Colleges.

Cambridge University Exam Preparation

PET - Preliminary English Test (pre-intermediate level)

FCE - First Certificate in English (intermediate level)

CAE - Certificate in Advanced English (upper intermediate level)

CPE - Certificate of Proficiency in English (advanced level)

These are 10 or 12 week courses which focus on preparing students for all aspects of the internationally recognised Cambridge exams.

TOEFL Preparation

A specialist course which combines General English with preparation for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) required for entry at a tertiary level.

IELTS Preparation

A specialist course which combines General English with preparation for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) required for entry at a tertiary level.

TOEIC Preparation

A specialist course which combines General English with preparation for the Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC) which is often required for work purposes.

English for High School Preparation

A course for students aged between 12 and 17 years old wishing to further their studies and enter an Australian or New Zealand high school. This course is designed to cover reading, writing, listening and speaking with an emphasis on vocabulary for science, mathematics and social studies.

Business English

A combination of General English and English for Business Purposes for those students wishing to use their English in the work force.

Young Learners' Programme

An intensive English language programme for students of mixed ability who want to improve their English skills and also have fun exploring the city they are in. Short term courses are available during holiday periods for students aged between 9 and 17 years of age.

Private Tuition

One to one tuition can be arranged for students of all ages.