

Wellington, New Zealand

GEOS Wellington - Wellington Language Centre

New Zealand's capital city is famous for its strong arts culture and intimate city atmosphere. Located on a picturesque harbour, surrounded by dramatic hills, Wellington is home to New Zealand's national museum, Te Papa, along with over 50 other museums and galleries. The city centre is situated along the harbour promenade: at just two kilometres across, the vibrancy and excitement of the city's cool cafes, elegant department stores, designer boutiques and local arts and craft markets are all within easy reach.

Wellington's beautiful surroundings invite to enjoy the outdoor pleasures for which New Zealand is world-famous.

WELLINGTON

College History

GEOS Wellington is one of the youngest members within the GEOS group and was established in 2003. GEOS Wellington ensure a very personal atmosphere in the school.

College Location

GEOS Wellington is located in the state of the art Saatchi & Saatchi building in the middle of Wellington's bustling inner-city café district.

From here you can explore the centre of the city simply by walking or catch one of the many public buses stopping right in front of the doorstep on Courtenay Place.

Students

GEOS Wellington is one of the smaller schools and can cater for up to 60 students at a time. Usually the student number ranges between 30 and 40.

- The minimum age is 16 years +
- The average age of students is between 18 and 30

Student Facilities

- Located on the 2nd floor
- 7 classrooms
- Self-study room (free resources, academic counselling)
- Reception area / student services desk
- Large student lounge with table tennis
- Computer laboratory with high speed internet connection
- Kitchen

Classrooms

- 7 classrooms
- Fully air-conditioned/heated
- Sunny and bright

Staff

- 3 Administration staff (including 1 Academic Coordinator/Counsellor) who are multilingual counsellors as well
- 6 Teachers

Special Features

- Group Study Tours
- Open TOEIC Test Centre

Street

Level 2, 101-103 Courtenay Place

City

Wellington

Country

New Zealand

Phone

+64 4 802 4620

Fax

+64 4 802 4621

Email

info@geoswellington.com

Website

www.geosnz.com

CONTACT DETAILS

- Wellington is the capital city of New Zealand
- The population is 350,000
- Wellington is famous for its cosmopolitan and international lifestyle and is often called the cultural capital of New Zealand
- Its temperate climate has the greatest amount of sunshine in New Zealand
- Clean, friendly, safe and welcoming city
- New Zealand Citilink (Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch)

FACTS & INFORMATION